

Thank you for using Open-TEE. Our goal in this study is to understand to what extent Open-TEE addresses the difficulties encountered by developers of Trusted Applications (TAs) for Trusted Execution Environments (TEEs).

The following set of statements is a standard form used to estimate usability of a system. The “system” in this case is Open-TEE

For each of the following statements, mark one box that best describes your experience with Open-TEE so far.

The scale is increasing agreement from left to right:

1 = “Strongly Disagree”

5 = “Strongly Agree”

- 1) Name up to three positive things about your experience using Open-TEE.
- 2) Name up to three negative things about your experience using Open-TEE.
- 3) Do you have any suggestions for improving Open-TEE to make it more useful in easing TA development?

4) Tell us about your current practices in developing and debugging TAs using your current software development environment (SDE):

a) Does your SDE allow interactive debugging?

b) Suppose you need to check the values of a variable at different points during TA execution. How do you do this in your current SDE?

c) What does your SDE cost? (e.g., price of a single developer license / hardware unit)

If you have any other feedback, please provide it here. Thanks.
